

The "Odyssey of a Bavarian Scholar" in the 1966 TJG recounted the start of the trek by Adolf Ratzka, a respiratory polio quad, to the U.S. and to the University of California. By 1968 the combination of a German benefactress and California technicians and friends had accomplished this exciting adaptation of a Step Van of which Adolf is "The Happy Driver." All would-be quad drivers will find invaluable the free illustrated brochure detailing specifications and prices. Write: Adolf Ratzka, 401 Wolfskill Avenue, Dykstra Hall, Room 136, Los Angeles, California 90024.

QUAD DRIVING: IN A SPECIALLY ADAPTED VAN

Special side view and curb view windows

Fold-down gate with push-button control

Gate stops automatically at car level

Wheel wells guide and position chair

Citizens band radio for emergency calls

Seat belts fastened to chair lock to car